Summer Term 2022

Monday 9 May 2022

Message from Ms Colburn

I hope you have all had a great week, especially those of you who were celebrating Eid at the start. It has been another busy few days for the staff and pupils—class photos, a Shakespearian workshop for Year 4 plus for our Year 6 pupils lots of last minute prepping for their SATs this week. As you will see, over the coming weeks, there will be plenty of trips and other enrichment activities planned for each year group—please do check your emails and child's book bags for letters. As the weather gets warmer, more pupils take their jumpers off at playtimes—please can you check tonight whether all parts of a uniform (and packed lunch boxes) have names in them—this way they can be handed back quickly! Have a lovely week everyone!

GOOD LUCK!
For your SATs
YEAR 6

As the message above says, we wish all of our Year 6 pupils the very best of luck this week. They finally start their national SATs assessments today after a break of three years due to COVID. We are really proud of how hard all the children have been working and can only ask that every child tries their best. Good luck to each and every pupil!

Year 4 Workshop—West End Live

Last Wednesday, our Year 4 pupils were lucky enough to take part in an exciting workshop held at school. Year 4 are currently studying the book 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' in their English lessons, which is a children's adaption of the Shakespeare play by the same name. The children were able to take part in the workshop to help them understand the story and context behind it and was a great opportunity for them to explore drama and get to experience a different way of learning. The pupils had a wonderful time as you can see from the photos here and really did well expressing themselves.
